

HOSPITAL PREPAREDNESS PROGRAM

MARYLAND

HPP FUNDING

20% decrease in funding since FY 2013

HIGHLIGHTS

- Maryland (MD) has a strong emergency preparedness and response system and uses HPP funds to safeguard a population of over six million
- Maryland is an active partner with nearby District of Columbia and Virginia to represent what is called the National Capital Region, and engages in exercise-based endeavors to prepare for high-profile events
- Maryland has four health care coalitions (HCC), all of which have a formal governance structure
- 46 acute care hospitals participate in Maryland's HCCs

SPOTLIGHT ON PREPAREDNESS: #1 in Health Security

- In 2018, the National Health Security Preparedness Index ranked Maryland as #1, exceeding the national average in preparing, preventing and responding to health threats
- Maryland's overall health security score in 2018 reached 8.0 out of 10, a 9.6% increase from 2013, and its highest health security score was in the domain of Incident & Information Management with a value of 9.7

FY 2018 PRIORITIES

- Countermeasures and Mitigation: Conduct HCC training on MD's Strategic National Stockpile request procedures and point of dispensing operations
- Community Resilience: Collaborate with the Maryland National Capital Homecare Association to incorporate homecare and hospice providers into emergency preparedness and response plans
- Information Management: Mitigate the effects of extreme weather on vulnerable populations by disseminating weekly reports to ESF-8 partners
- Surge Management: Develop four HCC response plans that address coordination in the event of large-scale burn/trauma emergencies
