

Hurricane Maria: 90 Days of Health Response and Recovery in Puerto Rico

U.S. Health and Human Services (HHS) deployed disaster health responders to help save lives

3,037

personnel deployed

31,011

patients
cared for

130

response
contracts
awarded

349

tons of medical caches moved

1.5M+

health education
fact sheets distributed

The health care system in Puerto Rico is recovering, and health care services are stabilizing

100%
of
hospitals

90%
outpatient
emergency
rooms

94%
of dialysis
centers

99.7%
of
pharmacies

99%
of federally funded health
clinics

● ● ● ARE OPEN ● ● ●

HHS continues to work with leaders in Puerto Rico on health system recovery

Advising on public health, disease
surveillance and injury prevention

Supporting recovery
of health care and social services
facilities and programs

Monitoring environmental conditions that may cause adverse health effects

Providing technical assistance on family services, including
schools

Addressing behavioral health concerns and long-term treatment
needs

Continuing to provide administrative flexibilities for Medicare and Medicaid

